OUTDOOR

FURNITURE

Currey & Company's outdoor furniture and accents collection is a celebration of tradition, fine craftsmanship and timeless elegance. Inspired by antiques, with a dash of whimsy thrown in, these handmade pieces are carefully designed and crafted to stand the test of time, both in their styling and their construction. This collection honors the outdoor furniture history that was the initial foundation of our company, as well as the passion for gardening shared by the Currey family.

CRAFTED BY HAND

Our beautiful concrete outdoor furniture collection is made using a traditional method, whereby concrete is hand-troweled over an iron frame, then sculpted to its desired texture. The end result is a timeless assortment of designs for the home or garden crafted to weather the elements as they gracefully age and patina.
