DEAR CURREY CUSTOMERS,

It has been 18 months since our last complete "big book," and while we don't publish them as often as we used to, the company remains committed to providing a complete catalog for our customers who desire it. This edition has grown to over 400 pages and nicely reflects the continued evolution of our product lines, with an emphasis on today's home fashion.

In our increasingly digital world, we all hunger for more images, details and product information than we can provide on the printed page. We encourage you to supplement this catalog with our new website, which was fully updated in spring 2024. If you give www.curreyandcompany.com a visit, you will find multiple images for every product, scores of product details, line drawings, tear sheets and high-res images for all of our line. Add that to an inventory that is accurate and up to date, and our site has become an even more powerful powerful tool for your use.

At Currey & Company, we remain strongly committed to supporting the interior design and retail customers who have supported our business since its beginning. You may continue to find us in our wholesale showrooms in Atlanta, High Point, Dallas, and Las Vegas. We hope that if you elect to visit any of these markets, you will pay us an in-person visit. While you may not find every item in every showroom as our line continues to grow, we are committed to providing an inspiring, informative and enjoyable visit.

Our product lines have continued to evolve over the past year and a half. The range of our lighting fixtures has never been broader, providing you with what we hope is a resource for more of your projects. We are especially proud of our furniture program, which has grown into a full-fledged accent furniture offering, with great attention to detail. And as always, our lamps and accessories lines provide color, excitement and variety. We hope there is something for each of you.

Our goal is to back all our products up with genuine service, provided by real people. We invest in significant inventories so your selection can be available in a timely way. We are tightly networked with our sales team so they have up to date information, and trained professionals take your calls and answer your messages in our headquarters. We aren't perfect, but we are striving to provide you with an exceptional experience.

Thank you for all of your generous support to our company over the years. We hope you will continue to choose us, now and in the future.

Best Regards,

Brownlee Currey
